John L. Bedker II, Ph.D Receives Fulbright U.S. Scholar Award to Belarus for 2018-2019

Los Alamos, NM. TechSource is pleased to announce that Dr. John Bedker, TechSource's Lead Human Capital Consultant, has received a Fulbright Scholar Program award to Belarus in Leadership and Organizational Behavior.

As a Fulbright Scholar, Dr. Bedker will take part in an innovative project to live, learn, and share experiences in leadership with students at the Belarusian State Economics University. Dr. Bedker will utilize his extensive expertise to support the Belarusian people as they transition to a westernized economy and teach Leadership and Organizational Behavior at the Belarusian State Economics University in Minsk. Dr. Bedker is one of over 800 U.S. citizens who will teach, conduct research, and provide expertise abroad for the 2018-2019 academic year through the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program. Recipients of Fulbright awards are selected on the basis of academic and professional achievement as well as record of service and demonstrated leadership in their respective fields.

TechSource President and CEO, V. Brian D'Andrea, shared his pleasure that his friend and respected colleague received this extraordinary honor, "John has been a mentor, trusted advisor, business associate, and friend for over 25 years. His expert counsel is built on an unwavering commitment to use education to improve human interaction and overall performance through shared experience. On several occasions John's commitment to achieve change through shared experiences has directly helped TechSource evolve our management structure and guide us to operational excellence. Belarus is fortunate to get him, and we are fortunate to have him represent our country."

Since its establishment in 1946 under legislation introduced by the late U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright of Arkansas, the Fulbright Program has given more than 380,000 students, scholars, teachers, artists, and scientists the opportunity to study, teach and conduct research, exchange ideas, and contribute to finding solutions to shared international concerns.
