TechSource Awarded Liaison and Technical Support Services Contract for the Department of Energy's National Nuclear Security Administration Office of Defense Programs.

TechSource, as Team Lead of the Enterprise-Wide Technical and Engineering Support Alliance (E-TESA) is pleased to announce it has been awarded a liaison and technical support services contract for Department of Energy's (DOE) National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA) Office of Defense Programs.

Under this Performance of Work Statement the E-TESA Team will provide technical, liaison, and analytical support to the Deputy Administrator for Defense Programs (DADP), the Principal Assistant Deputy Administrator (PADA) and the Principal Assistant Deputy Administrator for Military Applications (PADAMA) for Nuclear Weapons Council (NWC) related activities such as advice and assistance with work planning, report generation and coordination, preparation of principals for meetings, and management and control of NWC related information.

The DADP, PADA and the PADAMA provide primary guidance to the Defense Programs organization in the execution of the Stockpile Stewardship Program (SSP). They are responsible for the ultimate understanding of the SSP and its effect on National Security by DOE/NNSA elements, the Executive Branch, Members of Congress, the DoD, and other Federal agencies.

The SSP, a single, highly integrated technical program, is the mechanism for maintaining the safety and reliability of the U.S. nuclear stockpile. The SSP utilizes research, weapon surveillance, weapon assessment, advanced computational and modeling capabilities, and innovative manufacturing processes to maintain the enduring stockpile with high confidence in its capability to perform as designed.

This is the seventh award for the Team E-TESA, led by TechSource, under this NNSA BPA. The award is valued at $2,536,733.32. To date, Team E-TESA has been awarded a total contract value of $21,540,316.09. E-TESA continues to be the most successful in the number of contract awards and highest contract award total among all eight CTA Teams.
