TechSource Awarded Technical Support Services for the Department of Energy, National Nuclear Security Administration Office of Advanced Simulation and Computing and Institutional R&D Programs.

TechSource, as Team Lead of the Enterprise-Wide Technical and Engineering Support Alliance (E-TESA) is pleased to announce it has been awarded a Technical Support Services Contract for the Department of Energy, National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA) Office of Advanced Simulation and Computing and Institutional R&D Programs (NA-114).

Under this Performance of Work Statement the E-TESA Team will provide technical analyses and assessments to support program implementation and integration of the Advanced Simulation and Computing and Defense Science Campaigns. Direct personnel and technical experts will support ongoing mission-critical activities designed to meet the goals of the Stockpile Stewardship Program (SSP) and increase collaboration and coordination amongst the NNSA Defense Programs Laboratories.

NA-114 is responsible for providing the technical guidance and leadership necessary for creation, maintenance, and management of leading-edge computational modeling and simulation capabilities that are essential for maintaining the safety, reliability, and performance of the U.S. nuclear stockpile and advancing nuclear nonproliferation. As the lead office for computational capabilities, NA-114 manages the Advanced Simulation and Computing program and assures integration of defense sciences, which contributes essential and unique knowledge and expertise towards the predictive simulation and virtual prototyping capabilities based on advanced weapons codes that are critical to the Stockpile Stewardship Programs.

This is the eighth award for Team E-TESA, led by TechSource, under this NNSA BPA. The award is valued at $4,241,297. To date, Team E-TESA has been awarded a total contract value of $33,247,834. E-TESA continues to be the most successful in the number of contract awards and highest contract award total among all eight CTA Teams.
