TechSource Earns Top Workplace Recognition for Second Year in a Row

Germantown, MD. TechSource, Inc. is pleased to announce it has been named a 2023 Top Workplace, for the second year in a row, by Washington Post.

"For the past 25 years TechSource has been committed to cultivating a workplace environment where top talent is given the support they need to innovate, evolve, and succeed," said Jim Rhone, Managing Director, National Capital Region Operations. "Our success, and our ability to enhance mission delivery for our customers, are thanks to the hard work of our exceptionally talented cohort. This recognition only further solidifies what we know to be true."

Top Workplaces awards are based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology firm Energage LLC. The confidential survey measures 15 cultural drivers critical to the success of any organization including alignment, execution, and connection.

"It's an honor to be recognized as a Top Workplace for the second consecutive year," said Barry Shulock, TechSource Vice President, General Counsel and HR Director. "TechSource has spent the last several years focused on creating a strong, values-oriented workplace culture that empowers our employees, prioritizes transparency and communication, and celebrates inclusion and innovation. We are energized by the survey feedback and look forward to working even harder to ensure that we exceed our cohort's expectations every day."
