TechSource, Inc. Recognized as Small Business of the Year

TechSource, Inc. has been named the Department of Energy (DOE) Small Business of the Year, a prestigious recognition of our outstanding achievements in innovation, collaboration, and leadership in the national security mission space.

This award, which highlights exceptional performance and unparalleled service delivery, emphasizes TechSource's goal of continuing our journey of growth, expanding our reach, and delivering groundbreaking solutions to drive mission to our clients.

"TechSource has provided exceptional outcomes for our clients and partners for over 25 years making the company a leading provider of science, engineering, and technology solutions in the national security mission space. Our success is driven by the dedication and abilities of our professional team, our highly sought-after experts, and a culture that fosters excellence. This award recognizes the collective effort of our entire cohort over many years," said Brian D'Andrea Chairman and CEO of TechSource.

TechSource envisions a future of sustained growth and leadership by entering new markets and developing advanced solutions that anticipate and fulfill the evolving needs of its clients. By adhering to its core values and fostering a culture of progress, TechSource is committed to exceeding expectations and setting new benchmarks. "Our journey has always been about pushing the boundaries of science, engineering, and service. Being recognized as the DOE Small Business of the Year is not just an honor, it's confirmation of our commitment to advancement and our role as a trusted partner," shared TechSource's President and COO Jeff Giangiuli.
