TechSource, Inc. Earns Top Workplace Recognition for Fourth Year Running

TechSource is a dynamic and fast-growing scientific, engineering, and technology consulting company committed to delivering innovative solutions in the National Security Mission Space. We are proud to be a Top Workplace for the fourth consecutive year.

"Our team is the best in the industry, consistently setting new standards and exceeding expectations," said J. Quinn Wingerd, Vice President, and Managing Director of the Albuquerque Program Management Office. "Our people are the heart of our company, and being named a Top Workplace confirms that we are achieving something special."

Top Workplaces are determined entirely by employee feedback, collected through a confidential survey conducted by the employee engagement firm Energage LLC.

"We've cultivated a robust culture of teamwork and collaboration," said Jeff Giangliuli, President and COO. "Our employees challenge, inspire, and support each other, and this award highlights our dedication to creating a desirable workplace. Our culture of excellence is fueled by smart, creative individuals tackling challenging projects that drive progress for our clients, company, and cohort. We champion an inclusive workplace that values a wide array of perspectives and ideas, fostering a profound sense of community."

Our commitment to employee satisfaction and growth is reflected in our high retention rates. We offer clear career paths, opportunities to join passionate and innovative teams, competitive compensation, and the chance to learn from world-class mentors and experts.
